

May 10, 2014

The Do Run Run Race Directors Report

ARC Members,

May 7, started off as a questionable day when considering the weather, but by 5:30 PM as athletes gathered for the 6:30 start of the Anchorage Running Clubs 2014 Do Run Run, everything was sunshine. Fifty-four runners recognized a great day for a race day and decided to come out and celebrate the warm day by participating in the event. Although the overall field was evenly split between men and women each event had its own mix as far as participants. The day was nice so most people opted for longer distances leaving 11 year old Bradley Loncar free to dominate the 3K race. Kate Blair and Matt Crow won the Women's and Men's 4 Miler respectively. While Jennifer Duford and Scott Clementson were the first place finishers in the Women's and Men's 7.5K races. It seemed all that showed up enjoyed the evening and I encourage all our members to view the results to see which members are already out and about running/walking. If you missed the event, there is still a lot of summer left with plenty of fun runs. We hope to see you out there finding the healthy enjoyment of running/walking.

George Gates